USING ICT TO BRIDGE INFORMATION AND SERVICE DELIVERY GAPS IN UGANDA

March 9, 2018
USAID Digital Development Forum
Peter Nash, Feed the Future Uganda Commodity Production and Marketing Activity
UGANDA AGRICULTURE SYSTEMS

Smallholder Production:
- Low productivity
- Poor quality

Limited access to production services

Limited access to affordable genuine inputs / counterfeit inputs

Poor post-harvest handling

Financial exclusion

Limited access to market information and competitive markets

Limited access to affordable genuine inputs / counterfeit inputs
FEED THE FUTURE COMMODITY PRODUCTION AND MARKETING ACTIVITY (CPM)
AKORION’S “EZYAGRIC” SMARTPHONE APPLICATION
FARMER PROFILE/RECORDS
AGRIC SHOP
SELECTED RESULTS TO DATE

• Reduced farmer transaction costs by 35%
• Created 1,553 village agent employment opportunities, including 792 opportunities for youth
• Digitally profiled 130,253 farmers
  o Farmers have accessed more than US $59 million in loans for crop production
  o Enrolled 33,132 farmers in crop insurance